

THE KEY PARTS OF THE DECLARATION OF SALAMANCA

Society requires universities that are capable of leading the digital transformation. But what measures do they need to take to achieve this?

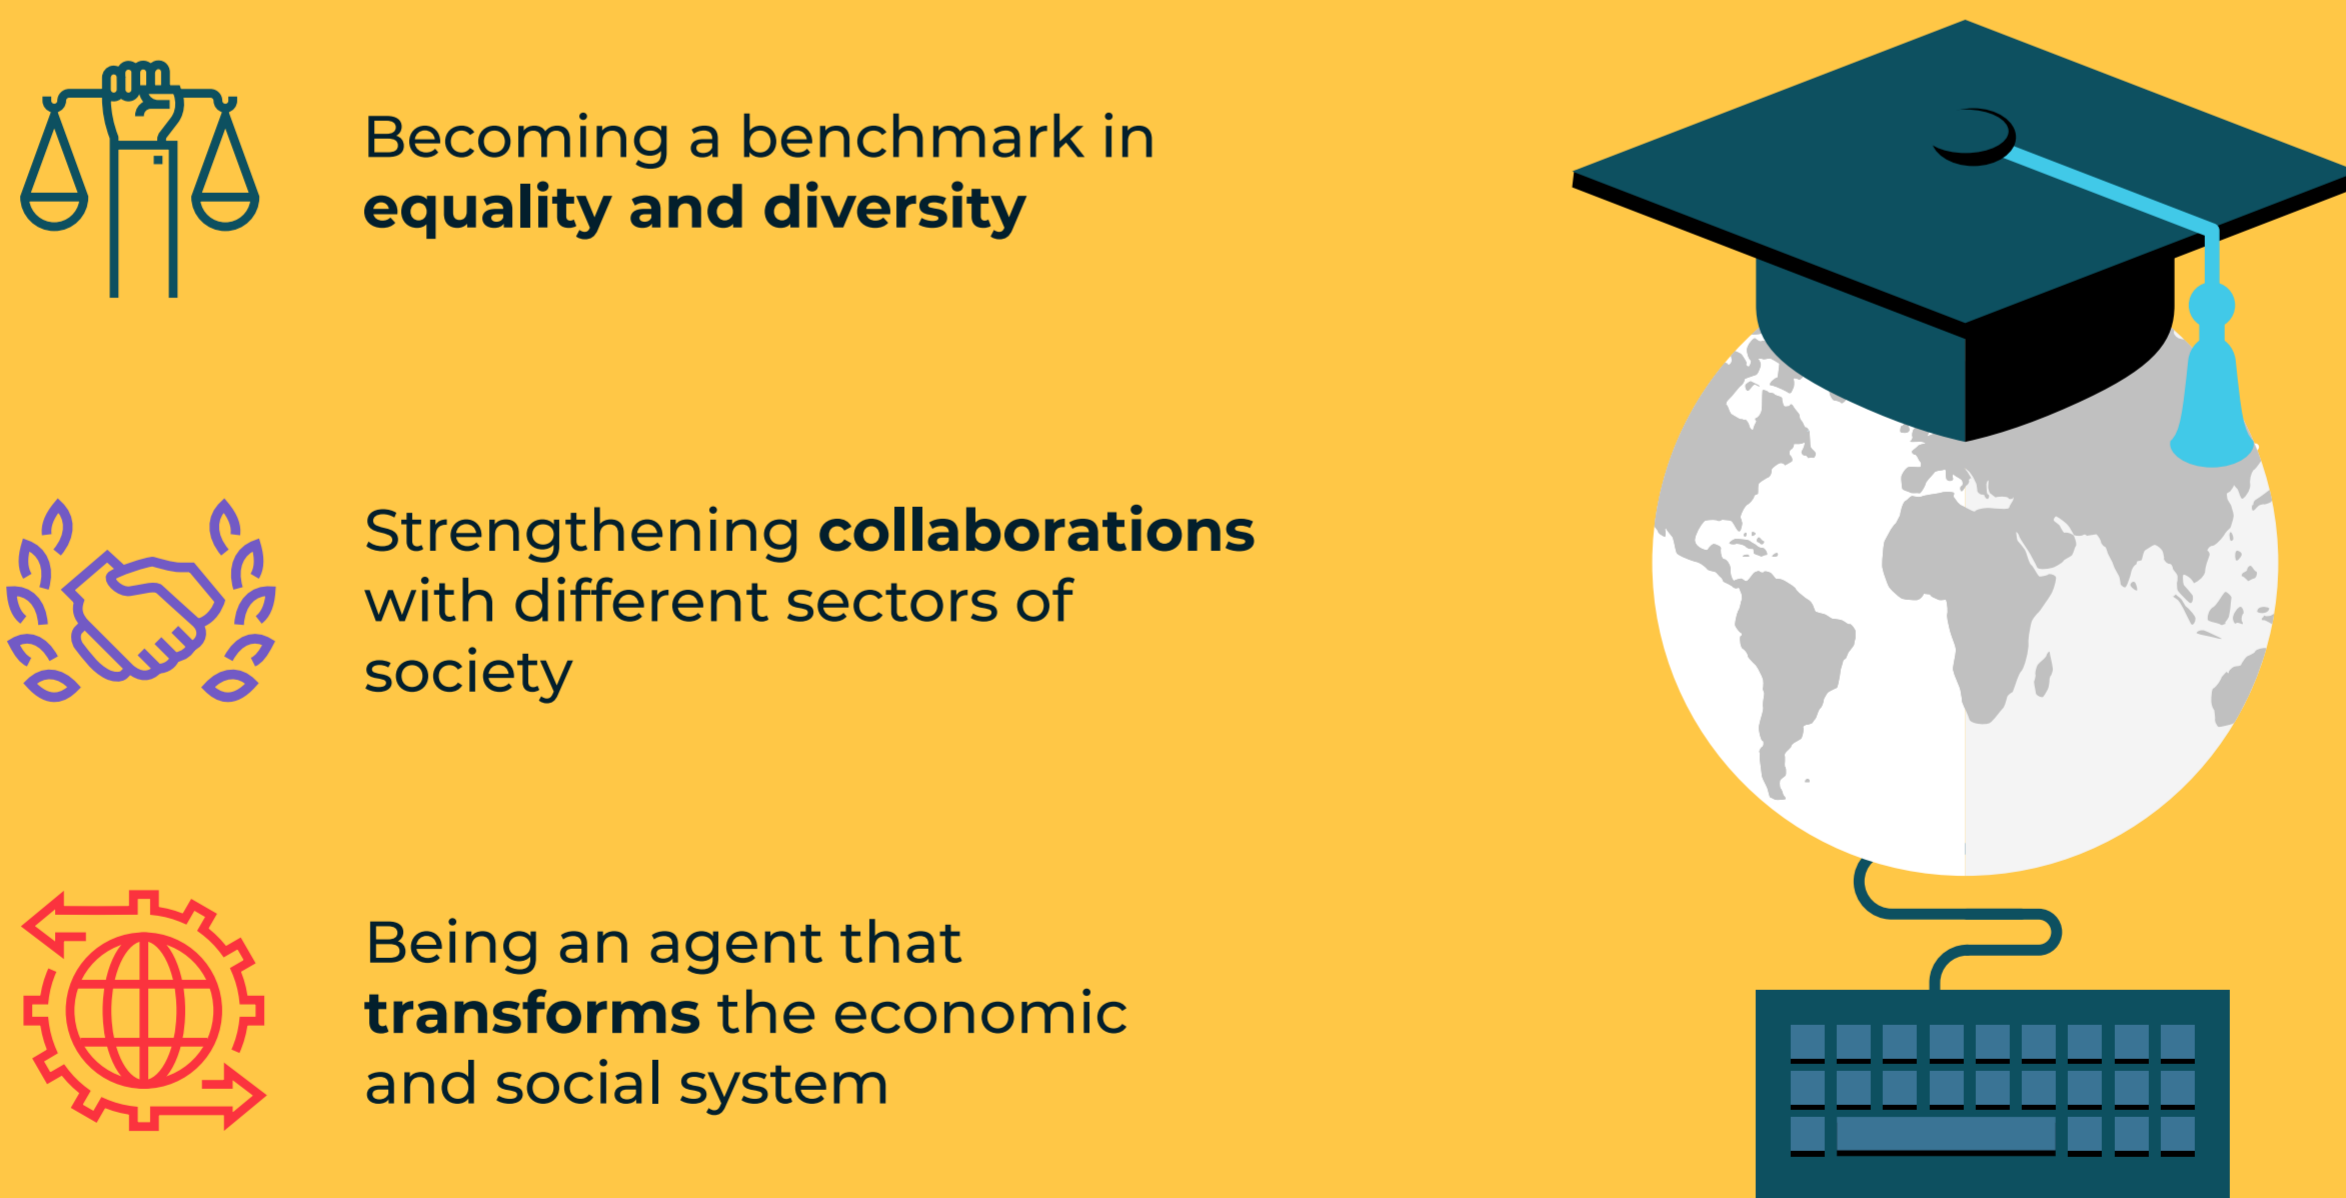

1. Educating and learning in a digital world

2. Research in universities

3. Contributing to social and territorial development

Universities must also work towards their achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals:

